

POLYGRAPH AGREEMENT STATEMENT

I have been informed of my nomination by the US Army to a position with the Central Intelligence Agency. I understand I may decline the nomination without any resulting adverse actions against me. I understand if I accept the nomination, a CIA condition of my assignment as an instructor or employee is the successful completion of a CIA administered polygraph examination. I understand the examination is a standard condition of employment by the CIA and is not being administered solely to me.

Understanding that the CIA, under the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), might not be authorized to disclose personal information concerning me without my written consent, I do hereby, authorize and consent to the disclosure of any information obtained or opinions formed as a result of the CIA administered examination, or from any interview before, during or subsequent to the polygraph examination, to the Army, at the discretion of the CIA.

I also understand that any information or opinions released by the CIA as a result of the examination or interviews could be used by the Army as a basis for further investigation, administrative action, or security or criminal investigation against me.

I understand if I accept the nomination and take the polygraph examination, I may stop the examination at any time and refuse to answer questions. However, I further understand that information obtained prior to my refusal to answer may be used as stated above and I understand that by refusing to answer, I will not be accepted for the position.

I have read and fully understand the above statement, and having been informed of my rights under the Constitution, I agree of my own free will and without any compulsion, duress, or promise of reward or immunity to an interview and polygraph by the officials of the Central Intelligence Agency.
